You are holy (Jeremie Tremblay) [Em, 120 bpm, 4/4]

[Jeremie Tremblay]

Intro, V, PC, C, V, PC, C, B, E

Intro

Em          C                  G
Down on my knees face to the ground
           D                       Em
I want the honor to give you my crown
           C                              G
You're The king of kings the ultimate ruler
                       D                          Em
I want to reign with you in your kingdom forever
      C           G
Even when I feel alone
                    D                         Em
I know that very soon you will bring me home
           C                        G
The conclusion of the matter for me
                       D                             Em
Fear Yah and keep his commandments is my whole duty!

Verse 1

Em                                      G
I know one day I will drop down to my knees
                                      D
I know when I will see you face to face
                           C
I will fall like a dead man… until you touch me
D               Em
So I can move again
                                      G
Good, bad, love, hate, joys and my cries
                                                D
will be proved by the blazing fire in your eyes
                         C
I don't want to be torn apart
                    D                                Em
when your righteousness pierces through my heart

Pre Chorus

           G
Now is the time
                D                                          C
To humble ourselves, to seek your face, to honor you
With boldness and praise for you are…

Chorus

Em
Holy
          C             G             D
You are Holy, You are Holy, You are Holy

Verse 2

Em                                    G
You are perfect, all powerful and so wise
                                                          D
You've put the sun, the moon and all the stars in the skies
                 C                   D            Em
Creator of everything you are the only true Elohim
 D
Even if, the pressure of men gets harder, I put my trust in you, my living water
Your holiness is beyond measure
             D                          Em
To know you exceeds the most precious treasure.

Prechorus
Chorus

Bridge/Ending

Em          C                  G
Down on my knees face to the ground
            D                       Em
I want the honor to give you my crown
            C                            G
You're The king of kings the ultimate ruler
                        D                        Em
I want to reign with you in your kingdom forever
      C           G
Even when I feel alone
                    D                        Em
I know that very soon you will bring me home
            C                       G
The conclusion of the matter for me
                          D                            Em
Fear Yah and keep his commandments is my whole duty!
