Verse

N.C. C
Sometimes in the night,
Am
feeling flustered and up-tight, F G
will the day come, that you'll overcome, C
and see His light.
all of your tears,
have led you here,

how can you change your heart,
Am(Bm)
and see what you don't know, G(A) F(G)
you can't begin to heal, until you get real,
C(D)
and let your wounds show.
the truth may be hard,
Am(Bm)
but if you want to grow, G(A) F(G)
listen and discern, repent and learn
to let go.

Want to Grow - Let Go

words and music by Brian Ferger

Sometimes in the night, feeling flustered and up-tight
and see His light
all of your tears, have led you here so open your heart, and make a new start to draw near but, how can you change your heart, and see what you don't know

the truth may be hard, but if you want to grow

you want to come home, so tired of feeling alone know it's about time, to be renewing your mind from a life bruised and torn I know that you're hurt, oh you're not alone but the overflow of your heart, can come out in your tone

so, how can you change your heart, and see what you don't know

your heart can grow cold, and your mind wants to fold don't want to be in this place, not seeing Yah's face oh this journey can be, so joyful and free but you must make a start, and open you heart oh, how can you change your heart, and see what you don't know

to let go

so open up your heart and make a new start and see how you'll grow
